THE RIGHT WAY TO PROMOTE TEMPERANCE

In the first place do not resort to compulsion when you desire to be successful in your crusade against drink, and do not expect the majority of people to follow your standard of temperance, if they are expected to give up all their old habits, and live for the rest of their life under some great restraint. Such means are only resorted to by parties who have very little experience of human nature, and who are more fanatics than good preachers of temperance, as they fail to be temperate in their own course and thereby do more harm than good. If a man is addicted to taking more than is good for him, see that what he drinks is of the best quality only, and then gradually make him aware of the great amount of alcohol that he is imbibing. Induce him to try some mild beverage, such as Miller's "Buffer" Beer for instance, and which in two quart bottles does not even contain as much alcohol as two ordinary drinks of Gin hold. If a man is once used to drinking the Buffer Beer he will never resort to strong drinks again, but, in order to be able to successfully preach temperance, one must be able to take the "Buffer" Beer, or other drinks in moderation himself. No one can become a successful advocate of temperance, unless he himself is proof against intemperance, and has been tried and found worthy of being trusted by his less fortunate brethren. The Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral did not meet Sunday on account of the recent action of Bishop Willis and the determination on the part of the members to await the disposition of church affairs here by the presiding Bishop of the American Church.

Owing to the injuries sustained by being thrown from her horse last week, Miss Lillian Bacon will be unable to meet her gymnasium classes at the Y. M. C. A. until Saturday of this week. The ladies' classes are asked to meet as usual and play basket ball—if they care to do so.

Walter C. Weedon addressed the congregation of the Christian church at the 11 o'clock service yesterday morning on the Minneapolis Convention of the Disciples of Christ which the speaker attended during his recent trip. Mr. Weedon also told of his experiences at the Y. M. C. A. international jubilee in Boston.

White duck suits may be worn at the Calico mask ball to be given in the drill shed Wednesday night. This announcement is made because there seems to be quite a good deal of misunderstanding with reference to wearing apparel admissible at the ball. Dress suits may be worn. The ladies may wear lawns, organdies or calico.

A MAMMOTH BENEFIT ORNAMENTAL CLIMBERS

AT ORPHEUM THEATRE
NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT
In Aid of Myrtle and Healan Boat Clubs—Hogan and His Company to Take Part.

There is going to be another benefit. The members of the Myrtle and Healan boat clubs have combined for a mammoth benefit performance at the Orpheum theatre next Friday evening and the urgent need of money in the clubs has helped to arouse such enthusiasm among the boys as to assure the public of "the greatest show on earth."

Ernest Hogan and "Billy" McClain with the others of the Orpheum company have contributed their services and will have many specialties touching on boating subjects. There will also be a number of topical and tropical songs.

Allan Dunn has charge of selecting local talent for the program and has a quantity of fertile material on hand in the line of local actors and would-be actors who will help to make the benefit a howling success. "Sonny" Cunha has a little act far more laughable than his famous Sapho scene and the amount of new talent of the rarest quality, is surprising.

Johnnie Soper has charge of securing advertisements for the program and his lack of experience in this line is a shrewd quality, inasmuch as it will enable him fearlessly and unblushingly to ask the business community fourteen prices for a single ad.

The reason for the benefit at this time is the necessity of funds in the Myrtle Boat Club to meet the heavy expenses for the moving of the boat house. On the part of the Healan's a new coat of paint on their club quarters and other needed repairs are much needed. Both are worthy causes.

The boys are very conscientious in the matter of benefits and would not attempt it, except for the excellent opportunity of entertaining their friends which is assured by the great quantity and superb quality of inactive theatrical talent now in the city.

All members of both the Healan and Myrtle Clubs who wish to help by disposing of tickets can obtain them from F. J. Church at the Honolulu Photo Supply Co.

Mr. Church has charge of the financial arrangements.

Yesterday, a committee of representatives of both clubs met at the Healan boat house to discuss the affair. All arrangements were completed and the following special committees were appointed: F. J. Church, finance; F. J. Soper, program; Charlie Frazier, D. L. Conkling, Chase, Crane, Ralph Yardley and R. Beverly Kidd, advertising with instructions to prevail upon the newspapers for as much space as possible.

Among other things done by the committee was the decision to decorate the theater in club colors and have many innovations that will add to the entertainment. Altogether the show will be strictly first class and a crowded house is expected.

Emma Square Music.

The band will play the following selections at a concert in Emma Square this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock:
